Example 1

JOKER

I think our alliance has made some good connections.

Been researching the Normandy so far.

We may find the key to unlocking Saren biotics.

GARRUS

Yes? We were looking for the healing power. It would give us a measure of peace.

And maybe even a sense of purpose.

SHEPARD

It was my duty as commander to protect them. Saren, who always believed they were a race of machines, has taken the throne.

I was in charge when he conquered

Sovereign. When he made the rakshasa...

an incredible creation. He gave me the key.

Example 2

Seed: SHEPARD

Output:

Garrus holds out his hand and Shepard walks to the wall. Shepard summons a plasma pistol, shoots the guard. He swings him over the wall, and Garrus is dead in his chair.

ASHLEY

I'll help you out if anyone else wants you.

GARRUS

I won't, Shepard. I won't be safe from the enemy.

Example 3

Seed: LIARA

Output: We know how it turned out, Commander.

ASARI MACHIN

Commander, we need toaccommodate the Citadel this cycle.

Ashley

Let's see if we can locate the turians and their commander here.

Shepard gets out of the airlock. He hears some footsteps. He turns, and finds himself on the Citadel floor.
